Clinical Seminar

Dear IPOKRATES seminar participant,

Thank you for your registration for the IPOKRATES clinical seminar "Evidence Based Pharmacotherapy in newborns and children".

Please find below a detailed program of the seminar as well as some general information.

1) CONFERENCE VENUE

The IPOKRATES clinical seminar "Evidence Based Pharmacotherapy in newborns and children" will be held at the Carolinum (Karolinum in Czech) in Prague, from Monday, April 9th to Wednesday, April 11th, 2018.

Address: Ovocný trh 3, Prague 1 (see the MAP)

The Carolinum is a national cultural monument and the main seat of Charles University. It is the oldest building at Charles University. It was dedicated to the University by the Czech King Václav (Wenceslas) IV in 1386 and has been serving the University ever since. Today it is one of Prague's most venerable historic buildings and provides a beautiful venue for academic, social and cultural events – including graduation and inauguration ceremonies. After the Second World War the University acquired and reconstructed some of the neighbouring buildings. Now this complex, located in the heart of Prague's Old Town, houses the University's headquarters (Rectorate).
