Pediatric Cardiology: Diagnostic Imaging Techniques and their impact on clinical management in Children.

Munich, Germany – University Clinic Munich (LMU)
December 5 - 7, 2013

Objectives

This is a three-day intensive review course of pediatric cardiac imaging providing an approach to diagnostic techniques and how these interface with management and treatment of children. Rather than a formal didactic lecture, the experts in each field will discuss their perspectives. At the end of each session the faculty will gather for a symposium to answer the questions from the audience or other faculty members. Participant's cases are appreciated to be presented and discussed. The new designed program will offer a 1-day basic course and a following 2-day advanced course.
